The Babyhood Transitions

5 to 12 Months - 4 sessions

The learning fields of toddlerhood are cultivated during the Babyhood Transition phase of five months to a year. Now your baby's day is filled to overflowing with sensory stimulation and learning opportunities. How will you respond?

Over four sessions you will build on the work done from Preparation for Parenting and certainly not by abandoning that which has brought you so much success – your baby's routine.

In their customary fashion the Ezzos lay out practical steps for successfully managing the growth challenges ahead, with age appropriate modifications to the three activities of your baby's day: feeding, wake and sleep times.

Topics include:

- Introducing Solids
- Introducing Juices and Snacks
- Highchair and Self-Control Training
- Forms of Pretoddler Correction
- Waketime and Creative Learning Activities
- Naps and Nighttime Sleep
- Common Sleep Questions

Preparation for the Toddler Years

12 to 18 months - 4 sessions

The period between 12 and 18 months places a child on a one-way bridge leaving infancy behind and heading straight for the toddler years.

The next six months is a season of exchange – bottle for sippy cup; highchair for booster seat; finger foods to using a spoon and that is the key to understanding this phase of growth.

In this series, over four sessions, the Ezzos provide principles, strategies and step by step guidance that will help parent and child make a smooth transition from babyhood to toddlerhood.

Topics include:

- Babyhood to Toddlerhood Transition
- Meal and Naptime Transitions
- The Necessity of Boundaries
- Keeping Your Pretoddler On Track

The Toddlerhood Transition

18 to 36 months - 9 sessions

In just over a year, the helpless infant emerges as a little moving, talking, walking, exploratory person marked by keen senses, clear memory, quick perceptions, and unlimited energy.

In view of the fact that a toddler's mind is driven by curiosity, a need to investigate and a tendency to try and rule the world with a smile or a scream, it becomes essential to consider the influence of the home as the principal learning environment, and Mum and Dad as the principal teachers.

This course, over nine sessions, will help guide Mum and Dad with an abundance of Biblical wisdom and truth as they parent their 18 to 36 month old and enjoy the amazing reservoir of joy this child brings. The power of a toddler's embrace, the joy of his smile, the comfort of his cuddling, all teach us about a simple love that is pure and unmeasured.

Topics include:

- Journey of Fatherhood and Motherhood
- Structure and Routine
- The Nature of Conflict
- What is Obedience?
- How We Send the Wrong Messages
- What Does Correction Look Like?
- Answers to Frequently Asked Questions
